TWO DAYS that divide the year, January 1 and July 4, are past for 1926. Half a chance is left for this year, and this year is a big part of an entire working life.

Young people that let the rest of 1926 slip by while they "get by" will know whom to blame when disappointment comes.

J. L. GARDIN, able British editor, predicts that fifty years hence our population will be 200,000,000, and Britain and America will be indispensable to each other.

One part of the British Empire—Australia and New Zealand—is important to America now, and will become more important as time passes and our population increases.

SIR JAMES A. M. ELDER, Commissioner for Australia, in the United States, returning home a few days since, suggested to this writer that soon America would be looking to Australia as an outlet for surplus population.

He thought Americans, seeking new land and opportunity, would find what they require in Australia rather than in Latin South America.

WITH ELECTRIC power supplied to every farm intensively cultivated, this country should support a billion of population. Texas alone would easily support our present population. But, barring birth control and

JACK KEARNS' REPLY TO DEMPSEY REVEALS A STORY OF LOVE AND FIGHTING

15 FIREMEN HURT IN BATTLE

Some six minutes after the alarm and the fire fighters directed their attention to the main room from all sides of the building.

Timothy, son of Mrs. William J. Murphy, Jr., who lives on the fourth floor, made their way down one flight to the apartment of Fred J. Farnham, when they were rescued with the Farnham family. Besides Farnham, his wife, Mary, and three children, John, 14, Francis, 12, and Charles, 10, were rescued.

TWO-HOUR FIGHT

Those rescued from the second floor included Mr. and Mrs. Peter Young and their five children, Charles, one, Agnes, two, Thomas, 10, John, 10, and George, 10, Joseph Young, a relative and Roy Johnson, who were stopping with the Young family, and the parents in keeping the children at the windows until the firemen reached them.

During the height of the fire-fighting, Fireman William B. Dwyer and Albert Turner of Engine 4 stumbled over the unconscious form of Lieutenant John J. Murphy of Engine 25, lying on the first floor of the burning building. Lieutenant Murphy had been overcome by smoke and collapsed.

OVERCOME BY SMOKE

Lieutenant Samuel Pope of Engine 1 was overcome by smoke and collapsed while fighting the fire at the front doorway.

Lieutenant Berlinger of Engine 56 and more than a dozen firemen were also overcome by the smoke.

District Chief Henry J. Powers, who was in charge of the fire fight, ordered a thorough investigation of the blaze when he learned from one of the tenants that an automobile drive up to the scene of the fire a few minutes before the fire was discovered, with lights extinguished. According to the information received by the firemen, the car jumped out of the machine and went through the front of the building, staying there several minutes before it came back to the street and sped away.

LAT IS SUFFOCATED

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelsey and six children on the top floor at No. 617 Main street, where a second child was carried down a ladder by Fireman, Mr. Kelsey fell while making her escape by a rear stairs and suffered an injured leg and back.

The family's cat was suffocated. The youngest of the Kelsey children, an only eighteen months.

The children are George, Stuart, Dorothy, ten; Evelyn, nine; Thomas, 8; Frances, four; Edna, two; and Pauline, eighteen months.

The damage was estimated at $10,000.

SAYS HELEN WILLS, BUT—

London, July 6 (U.S.A.)—Despite denial from Helen Wills and her mother, the rumor persists that the American tennis champion is engaged to Fred Moody, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Moody of San Francisco.

No formal betrothal exists, according to rumor, but they are engaged. Helen will complete eight months of schooling before a formal announcement of the engagement is made.

THEATRE FIRE SET BY

LIGHTED CIGARETTE

A fire, believed to have started from a lighted cigarette, caused $25,000 damage to the National theatre today, necessitated calling help from Newton and gave both departments a three-hour run-out. Two alarms were sounded.

The fire started on the upper floor of the building directly under the operator's booth.

dent was inclined to feel confident that General Andrews would stay at his task.

Notwithstanding this, it was predicted by persons in a position to know that Andrews has resigned, effective August 11, when he returns from England.

The names of Major-General John P. O'Ryan of New York, commander of the 27th Division in the A. E. F., and William C. Andrews, former head of the American Legion, and Herbert H. White, ex-mayor of New York, were mentioned as possible successors to Andrews.

NAME GIVEN AS SUCCESSOR

John D. Pennington, a retired naval officer, was appointed prohibition commissioner for the Western District of Pennsylvania, succeeding R. B. Ray, who resigned after making charges that "inflation" impeded his work.

At the same time the Treasury announced the appointment of Vincent Synnott, an attorney in the New York office of the prohibition bureau, as successor to Walter Green, chief of intelligence.

SEEK LAW ENFORCEMENT

Andrews declined to make any statement on his resignation. His friends, however, declared that he was not retiring because of discouragement over failure of Congress to enact prohibition legislation, but that he considered his work had been completed and that he now desired to return to private life.

Andrews' office is a statement was given out declaring that "it is the intention of the Treasury to seek the aid of the legislative department of the entire legislative branch in the enforcement of the law."

DRAFTS ANTI-DRUG PACT

Andrew left Washington today for New York and tonight will sail for London in an effort to negotiate a new anti-drug agreement with Great Britain.

Before the Senate committee investigating prohibition, he created a sensation by declaring that legislation of 2 1/2 per cent. beer would make enforcement easier.

Andrews proposed a number of radical amendments to the Volstead Act which failed of passage in the last Congress.

FAIR AND WARMER FOR

24 HOURS PREDICTED

Occasional showers and slightly warmer weather are forecast for Boston for the next 24 hours. The mercury reached a minimum of 36 degrees last night, and averaged about 62 until noon today, but this will be relieved by a shift in the wind. Generally weather on the Massachusetts coast will be fair and warmer. Northwest winds will prevail.

O'Ryan Picked to Be Dry

"Czar" Is Washington Tip

Washington, July 6.—It is reported here Major General John P. O'Ryan, of New York, will succeed Lincoln C. Andrews as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. General Andrews is expected to resign on his return from a European trip. General O'Ryan has the qualifications of soldier and lawyer that Secretary Mellon desires in the person in charge of prohibition enforcement.

torted trainmen and conductors were deserting, claiming the strike-breakers were incompetent. At many stations the new men did not know their trains some stations beyond the platform.

TRAIN NEAR CRASH

A recent collision was narrowly averted at one station when a local freight train just in back of a train discharging passengers. Several cars were damaged.

The frequently mentioned Malbone street disaster in which eighty-one persons were killed and 220 injured during the R. M. T. strike in 1915.

The first attack on strike breakers occurred this morning when a squad of unidentified men jumped on two new arrivals and tore off their overalls. They were not injured, but made no further effort to go to work.

One man who said he was a strike breaker was arrested by police, who said he carried a revolver and a blackjack. The man said he had come from Chicago.

"WORKERS FOR BREAKERS"

The Jerome avenue car barn in the Bronx were turned into a "fortress" for strikebreakers. Flooding was laid over the tracks and cars were put in. Large supplies of food were stored there and preparations made for serving meals.

Heavy guards were put on patrol, and it was feared that all the strikebreakers' needs might not have been having them on guard.

Albert Goldman, commissioner of street structures, said it had been found unnecessary to use a fleet of emergency ferries.

He said that 200 buses, many from out of town, were held in readiness for emergency use.

Thousands of persons on their way to work anticipating delays, took their usual underground routes and took advice and elevated lines, buses, taxis, and even trams and trolleys were sent even to bicycles. This caused overcrowding above ground, but made the task of the main subway even more onerous.

"I should say to a very considerable extent," Walnut replied.

Thousands who, ordinarily, ride to work walked.

Half of New York Riders Hit by Big Strike

New York, July 6 (U. S. A.)—Close to 50 per cent. of Greater New York's riding public are affected by the R. M. T. subway strike.

Transit commission figures indicate 1,680,000,234 passengers used the lines of the R. M. T. and R. M. T. last year. Of that total 814,630,230 rode in the strike-affected subways. It is estimated.

A deluge of rain added to the discomfort of the millions struggling to get to work.

Office routine was disrupted as almost every employee in the city was late.

125 ON STRIKE

Official union reports were that 122 motormen and switchmen had responded 100 p. c. to the strike call. Leaders declared the strike would spread. Some suggested a 100 p. c. of 1,500 employees of the Interborough, including power-house men, station agents, conductors, and conductors' aids, would follow the walkout.

The other main subway, the Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit, was running as usual, but it was taxed far beyond capacity.

The strikers, who formed a new association called the Consolidated Railway Workers of Greater New York, bailed from the regular employees' union.

CAUSE OF WALKOUT.

Frank Hedley, president of the Interborough, refused to arbitrate with the strikers, declaring that he was bound by an agreement to deal with the Brotherhood of Railroad Employees and with no other body of employees.

The motormen want $1 an hour, but they are getting $0.90 an hour. They had been getting $0.80 an hour, 30 cents, third year and there after $2 cents. But now, 18 cents first year, 21 cents second year and thereafter, until promoted to motor.

The strikers had been working approximately eight hours a day, seven days a week.

Despite the strike Interborough Transit stock was strong on the stock exchange. It opened at 42, an advance of two points from the close of Friday.

It is suggested that the strike will be a success, but it is a monster fulfilling a prearranged threat.

Said and official mail officers became mildly hysterical. Commander Ellinger, three his hat, told the Atlantic as he explained: "God bless them, there is the power."

during the salvage operations, so complained the 551 for a short distance when the old federal train started for Brooklyn, out both turned back. The conveyer of the two subways and four times were regarded sufficient. Progress of five knots an hour was reported.

Heading of the 551 yesterday afternoon is reported as one of the greatest salvage feats ever accomplished by the navy. Several unsuccessful attempts were made to bring down the mine sweepers and the 551. The torn bulk did not hold up above the surface, but only to sink again when one of the bottom broke loose.

Wind and sea were favorable when the successful effort to raise the submarine was made.

The submarine had been pumped dry. From then on it was a last for the surface. Twenty air lines, four arteries reaching from the pumps of the sister submarine 550 and from the mine sweepers and the 551, dropped 600 ft. of cable into the sea. An end gear sufficed the sea above the 551.

Thousands of signatures were handed over the two-day holiday by 360 volunteer workers who are assisting the cemetery commission in the collection of signatures for commutation of the death penalty imposed on the young men condemned to hang in the week of August 8, 9, and 10, the Walham calendar murder.

Relative to the J. H. McLaughlin case, John J. Devereaux took an active part in the hunt for names. Wherever he could find a name, he would hand names and at the midnight bell rang on the night before the Fourth, the men and women with their names placed their signatures and reminded the merry-makers of the plight of the doomed young men.

Mrs. Henry McInulness, chairman of the committee, said that the names and the other members of the committee were cheered by the results of the holiday drive.

READS BIDS LETTERS

Mrs. Sarah Devereaux, mother of one of the condemned boys, spent most of the Fourth at her home, No. 72 Gardner street, Allston, reading and writing letters to the boys.

EVERY HOME A FORTRESS.
SAVES PILSUDSKI'S ORGAN

Warsaw, July 1.—Every Polish home must be a fortress. This brilliant statement appearing to-day in the Polish Pilsudski's newspaper Polska Zbrojnia was interpreted here as indicating a more vigorous foreign policy on the part of Poland, with possible vital international ramifications.

"Poland's Just Rights are not at stake by the Tergovitz treaty," declared Marshal Pilsudski's newspaper, "but rather the realization of our ideal organ of the present regime."

LEADERS PRAISE BAY STATE BODY

By JAMES WALSH.

Letters from leaders of many organizations all over the country commending the Associated American Irish Societies of Massachusetts for their stand against the so-called "National Origins" clause in the Immigration law, were read at the meeting of that organization in Hibernia Hall, Dudley street, President Richard J. Dwyer presided. John J. Foley, secretary of the organization, read the communications and said mass meetings of protest against the clause are in contemplation by various societies.

Among the letters read were those from Congressman Michael Donohue of Pennsylvania, who is national president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians; John J. Sullivan, president of the American Irish Historical Society of New Haven; President of the Friends of Irish Freedom, of Providence; and President William Owens of the American Federation of Labor.

AIR MECHANIC HURT, BRITISH FLIGHT HALTED

Barna, Ireland, July 5 (A.P.)—The flight from London to Australia of Alan Cobham, British aviator, has been interrupted because his mechanic, Elliott, was badly injured about the arm and chest while trying to mend a broken fuel pipe in flight.

INVALID IS SAVED AS HOME BURNS

West Hartford, July 5.—Bedridden for five years, Miss Mathilde P. Lund, 85, was rescued from her home here when it was destroyed by fire. Damage is estimated at $12,000.

As there is no appearance in this town, she was called from Sweden. Miss Lund was carried out by her nephew, William P. Hallaway, and several of the neighbors.

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON SOCIETY Brilliant Picture Was Presented at Myopia Club Horse Show

SOCIETY DEARLY LOVES

A horse show, and the Legion affair at Myopia with riders of that smart club going over the jumps and around the flat was all life and movement and color. The North Shore that rides to hounds—the Tuckermans, the Sortwells, the Applemans, the Williams, Stuart Forbes family, all were there.

MISS THEODORE AYER and Miss Anne Beckman Ayer, handsome daughters in the Charles Panning Ayer family, whose splendid horsemanship is but one of their varied accomplishments, were in the ring. Mrs. John B. Lawrence, Miss Alice Thorncliffe, the "Pinks" Ayers, Miss Mary Curtis, Augustus E. Goodwin—such names appeared on the meet card.

BAYARD TUCKERMAN'S yellow and black coach, drawn up to the ringside in most advantageous position, held a merry group of the Tuckermans, all in white, for the occasion. Miss Rita de T. Sealing, her mother, Mrs. Roland Pratt Sealing, Miss Laura Mitchell, and a host of little folks occupied the coach top.

WILLIE ALVIN P. SORTWELL appeared in the ring and two small Sortwell girls, Elise and Cynthia, did likewise, following splendidly in the contest. Mrs. Sortwell, charming in a French creation of blue blue plaid silk with swirling cape, watched the events with her other small daughters, whose white frocks and big white hats made them resemble white blossoms blowing across the field.

OTHERS OF THE SORTWELL connection were the Joseph W. Woods (Princess Pollard), a sister of Mrs. Sortwell and the Rev. and Mrs. William A. F. Smith and their small daughter, in blue. Mrs. A. Wilder Pollard, mother of these smart young matrons, was herself extremely distinguished in black.

IT WAS CHILDREN'S DAY at the Horse Show. Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Sears had their tiny little girls with them in little frocks of bright yellow. Mrs. Lynde Cook, wearing a very pretty young girl in a purple dress and white with matching hat had her son, Nathaniel, with her. Mrs. William Stuart Forbes wore bright orange in coat and shady hat.

SANTORICALLY SPEAKING, Mrs. Cochran, in green silk, and Mrs. Sears, in a knitted costume with bright border, were most of the festive. Mrs. Nathaniel S. Simpson, in purple dress and white with matching hat had her son, Nathaniel, with her. Mrs. William Stuart Forbes wore bright orange in coat and shady hat.

THE VIVIDITY of AYER coach held an overflowing and noisy group of the young enthusiasts, both Mr. and Mrs. Ayer appeared in the ring atop favorite mounts.

Mrs. Robert T. Brewer with her daughter, Miss Elise Brewer, added much to the feminine display of becoming summer frocks.

BOTH MISS AND MISS BREWER were in pale rose shades and both wore wide hats in the same soft pinkish tints. Mrs. Charles F. Ayer's was another smart frock becoming to a degree, Mrs. Thomas E. P. Rice wore soft pink silk, Miss Mary Weld chose the buttercup yellow, with white wrap, and Mrs. Oliver Wolcott with her small daughter, was in lowered chiffon.

MISS BARRAHNA FORBES set off her dark brilliant beauty with small tan felt chapeau, extremely chic, and frock of sage green. Miss Edith Parker was another devotee of sports wearing green. Mrs. Oliver Ames, Jr., only phased the voice for large black hair, her's a wide transparent affair.

THE LEGION POST staging this annual horse show is named in memory of that loved North Shore and Washington personage, the late Augustus Peabody, a post to which Messrs. Bayard Tuckerman, Oliver Wolcott, George von L. Meyer, Jr., J. C. R. Peabody, Reginald C. Robbins and many others of that ilk belong.

A HOLIDAY AFFAIR delightful to the musicality infused was the musicale given by Edgar R. Davis at his Buzzard's Bay Summer home, with Mabel Garrison, soprano, as star attraction. Concert numbers and operatic arias spotlighted the program most brilliantly.

THE WEDDING of Miss Elizabeth G. Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Gray of Haverhillport-on-Cape Cod, and Detroit, Mich., to Nelson Benson Sackett is an important Summertime ceremonial celebrated today in the Pilgrim Church, Haverhillport, at noon.

PERMITS TO PREVIEW for the young people included a dinner-dance at the Coffee Shop in Hyannis, a luncheon at "Graycocks," the Gray Summer home (where a house party is being entertained, bridge luncheons, and all fresco affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Sackett go to Europe on their honeymoon.

GEORGE W. SWIFT and Miss Ruth Swift sailed for Europe recently on the Mauretania, when that painted liner took over a rough-breaking cabin list. The Swifts new residence is on Commonwealth avenue.

LIKEWISE BOUND for foreign shores, Charles A. Hawes, a Museum of Fine Arts director, sails tomorrow to join Mrs. Hawes (Elizabeth Boyd Hawes, and her daughter, who went over earlier in the Spring to Greece for the dedication of the Gennadeion in Athens. The Hawes family will do a Continental tour before returning in September.

GORDON EDITH WARREN has been a Hotel Ambassador, New York, guest; Robert Stow Bradley set up at the same hotel, also, along with Charles A. Rheault (Roumond Bradley) of the Howard Club of London, has been at the Ambassador. Mrs. Philip Thayer has been at the Hotel Roosevelt, in New York.

MEXICO SNUBS POPE'S APPEAL

Mexico City, July 6 (A.P.)—Vernando Noriega, president of the Bar Association, has called a meeting of Mexico City attorneys to discuss the government's religious restrictions.

In addition to providing severe penalties for religious restrictions in schools or other similar violations of the Mexican Constitution, they prohibit sectarian publications from making any comment on or carrying any news of national political affairs.

Foreign Minister Sarran has refused to comment on the protest of the Pope against the government's policy and, in the absence of President Calles in northern Mexico, it is the opinion in well-informed circles that the government will disregard the protest.

Pope Calls for Prayers
August 1 on Mexican Bay
Rome, July 5 (A.P.)—Pope Pius XI, has set aside August 1, festival of "St. Peter in Chains," for Catholics to seek divine aid against the structures of the Mexican government which affect the Catholic church.

A circular letter calling for special prayers on that date was sent to the Holy See's representatives throughout the world.

The letter recalls that such prayers were asked in a letter recently to Cardinal Pompili, vicar of Rome and that the pontiff himself has been praying daily for his Mexican churchmen in the situation since in December.

Approximately 3,000 students of both sexes were registered when the session of the Harvard University Summer School opened today.

Some Climate in California, All Right

Sacramento, July 6 (A.P.)—San Francisco has produced the largest soldier in the entire American army. It was claimed by the "California Guardian," monthly publication of the California National Guard, that Private John F. O'Leighman of Company A, 25th Coast Artillery, his height is six feet six inches and he weighs 245 pounds, according to the announcement.

The soldier attributed the position of the church as it is today to the general apathy of its members. "Something is seriously wrong," he said.

BRITISH RULES ARE UPHELD
London, July 6 (A.P.)—The House of Commons until nearly 8 o'clock today discussing the government's motion to continue the emergency regulations effective at the beginning of the coal strike under the Emergency Powers Act of 1920. The motion was carried 151 to 64.

Mr. William Johnson Hinks, home secretary, said one reason for maintaining the regulations was to enable the government to keep track of financing in communications between Russia and the British trade union.

Referring to recent speeches by A. J. Cook, secretary general of the miners' federation, Mr. Williams said that if measures were taken to prevent the federation from returning to work, the regulations would be invoked to protect them.

EPISCOPALIANS PLAN DRIVE

New York, July 6.—Incomparably rich in money, organization and power, the Protestant Episcopal Church, according to an open letter, approved by Bishop John Gardiner Murray, is failing to produce any thing like apostolic results.

To relieve the situation and rehabilitate itself, the church plans a gigantic evangelistic campaign to recruit 100,000 new members.

The campaign will be launched in 1927 and will be far-reaching along the lines adopted in national political campaigns. "The open letter attributed the position of the church as it is today to the general apathy of its members. 'Something is seriously wrong,' he said.

HOHENZOLLERNS WILL DICKER FOR PROSPERITY
Berlin, July 6 (A.P.)—The administrator of the Hohenzollern family has notified the Prussian state of the willingness of his clients to resume negotiations concerning the disposition of the property in the State owned by the former royal family.

NEW MODEL IN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS

Are you just wishing that you had an electric refrigerator these days or are you keeping your eyes and ears open for the best opportunity to invest in this latest word in housekeeping help?

I'll be glad to tell you about a new complete cabinet model on low in price as to be within the reach of practically every family. The mechanism of a famous French, is built into a specially designed and constructed cabinet. It is remarkably compact and the food compartment is so arranged that it has ample capacity for the needs of the ordinary family. It can be completely installed in your home, attached to your ordinary electric connection and if you go to another home, can be moved as easily as another piece of furniture.

Electric refrigeration, as of course you know, maintains a constant dry cold which keeps all foods in perfect condition. The full flavor of meat is preserved indefinitely. Fruits remain fresh and juicy, lettuce is kept crisp, milk, cream, butter and eggs stay just as fresh as when you bought them. This new model is equipped with ice trays in which you can freeze cubes of ice from your own pure drinking water, or which can be used for the making of delicious frozen desserts and salads.

I'll be glad to send you complete literature about this new model electric refrigerator, if you're interested.

To Keep Juicy Pies From Running Over

To keep juicy pies from running over, put in each pie a spoonful of fine lapdock. This will give the pie a rich flavor and take up the juice. It is well to brush the lining of the pastry with milk, too, before putting in the fruit. Another good plan is to roll a soda cracker fine and sprinkle it on the lower crust. Many experienced housewives cut the lower crust 1/2 an inch larger than the top and fold it over last to prevent the juice from running out.

WHAT SPOILS OUR CANNING?

Forewarned is forearmed, and this time we all stop to consider the reasons why a certain percentage of our cherished canned goods "goes bad" we can prevent a recurrence of such catastrophes this season. Lack of thoroughness in washing food, carelessness in the handling of food, selection of poor food to be canned and lack of good equipment—perfect jars and rubbers—are a few reasons. Lack of high enough temperature to reach the food in the center of the jar and kill the organisms there, and failure to seal the jars perfectly as to prevent the re-entrance of micro-organisms are other causes. Every last one of those pesky critters must be killed off if our canning is to be successful.

Whipped Cream

Cream will whip better and more quickly in a pitcher than in an open bowl and with less airtighting. It will remain stiff if a teaspoon of dissolved gelatin is put into the whipped cream. When cream fails to whip add a pinch of salt or whip up an egg white until stiff, but not dry. Put the cream over and set it to chill. It will then whip easily.

NEWS FROM THE RETAIL MARKETS

Asparagus lovers be warned! The season of your favorite vegetable is fast drawing to a close. There will be just a few more tentative shipments on account of the late season. Make the most of them! The price today is 17 1/2 to 25 cents a bunch.

Lettuce and spinach are low and clubbards is low at 4 to 5 cents a pound. Summer squash is coming along at 5 to 15 cents, average price 10 cents. Southern tomatoes are 10 cents to 25 cents. Native peas are 15 to 20 cents a pound, fresh and delicious.

I had my first watermelon feed with the Big Boy last night. A heavy for 21, seedless grapes have been with us for about a week at 10 to 20 cents a pound. Milkweed in the Imperial Valley has boosted the price of California cantaloupes and may end the season early. Native strawberries are at their best. Native cod and haddock are low. PICKLES AND PICNICS

PICKLES ARE PART of every picnic. Be sure you get the kind that are above reproach. Sweet, crisp, sweet relish mixed in such a way that all you hear is the cry of "More!" Same famous firm makes peanut butter that's richer, smoother, creamier. The children'll love it.

TRANSCENDENT GREEN CRYSTALS of mint are high lights on the dinner plate. Made of pure fruit with delicate flavor of mint leaf. Lovely with breakfast bacon or roasts; equally good with fruit salads or ice cream. Special introductory offer of three 1 1/2 ounce tins includes booklet of unusual recipes.

MOTHERS, ATTENTION! Lightning mixer blends baby foods quickly and thoroughly. Whips cream, beats eggs and mixes salad dressings, too. Durable, sanitary. Works with truly marvelous speed. Recipe book free with mixer. You'll wonder how you got along without it. 90c.

A NEW STYLE in jar rubbers has arrived. Double lip makes it easy to open your home preserves, etc. Just pull either lip. This breaks the seal and the cover comes off like magic. A boon to the home canner. No more holding jars under hot water and poking vainly at the top with a knife. Better get a supply for your summer dainties.

A GIFT FOR YOU from a famous aluminum manufacturing company is a fashionable table pad. Felt backed; attractive windmill design on aluminum pad. Prevents ugly rings and burns on your pet table cloth. Do you want the name and address?

YOU CAN SCARCELY EQUAL the scenic glories of Vermont. Whatever your requirements for the perfect vacation, the Green Mountain State is sure to have them within her wide and beautiful boundaries. Fishing, boating, swimming, hiking, mountain climbing—and how economically you can enjoy them! The Boston American Hotel & Travel Bureau, Room 511, 5 Winthrop Square has gorgeous descriptive booklets of Vermont that will be gladly sent you on request. THE BEST DOLLAR you ever spent will be the one you pay for a little bottle that makes your automobile windshield as clear as a bell no matter how hard it pours. 2 ounce size contains enough to last the life of your car. One application is effective for six months. Invisible! a life saver when the heavens open. 81c.

MADE AND BOTTLED IN FRANCE for over a hundred years is a certain celebrated grenadine. The supreme sweet flavoring. Delicious desserts and beverages are made with this "different" product. 55c. You'll be a famous hostess with this delightful flavor to your credit.

IF YOUR FAMILY COMPLAINS of a deadly sameness to the picnic sandwiches surprise them with some made from pure de folie grass. Imported from France, 30c a tin. Smooth, rich, delicious paste garnished with dainty bits of truffle. The favorite of epicures. The ace among edibles. SEASICKNESS CONQUERED! All travelites take notice. Certain remedy stops and prevents travel sickness. Contains no drugs of any kind. Corrective action; doesn't dope the system. Enables you to travel by car, train, auto, car or air in perfect health and comfort. 75c. It's saved my life on many an occasion!

DON'T BE ABASHED to let dainty Summer frocks get against dirty auto cushions. Use a preparation that removes grease and spots from auto upholstery in a twinkling. Inexpensive; effective. Make the inside of your car as sparkling as the paint outside. No more apologies to your guests.

PIGS IS PIGS, says Ellis Parker Butler, and I'm such a pig I'd like to take this whole page to tell you about my finds! If all any of these, just check 'X' clip the coupon, attach your name, address and a LOOSE two-cent stamp.

"Will I eat cereals?—bring on the Puffed Rice and watch me!"

THERE was a time when he wouldn't eat any cereal dish, without lots of coaxing and urging. Now, according to his mother, there's a different story to tell—he calls for it!

By giving youngsters Puffed Rice instead of ordinary cereals, many mothers have found the same result. The modern idea in diet is to give youngsters the food they need in a form they like. You start now by tempting the appetite.

Puffed Rice does it probably like no other cereal known. The flavor is like toasted nuts—crispy grains that crunch in your mouth like fresh toast.

Each grain is steam puffed 8 times its natural size. That makes digestion easy. Then it's richly oven toasted, which makes it as alluring as a confection. Children revel in its unique deliciousness.

Isn't it better to give your children grain food in this enticing form than to command and coax that another be eaten? Try it a few days. What happens will surprise you. Get Puffed Rice at any grocery.

Should a woman

—or use the telephone?

THESE are labor saving days and the question above is merely asked to attract the attention of all women who enjoy the convenience of the telephone, but have not as yet experienced the remarkable amount of worry and labor that Linit saves as a laundry starch.

As thousands of women know, Linit is distinctly different from old fashioned starches, which merely smear on. Linit penetrates each thread, and gives the whole fabric a soft, pliable, uniform finish. It makes even inexpensive cotton fabrics look and feel like linen. As the same time Linit fastens back into each thread the surface fuzz that would otherwise catch d.r.

Story of a Boston Girl Who Liked Jazz Music and the Bright Lights

Merry decided that she didn't like Kaufman and never was going to like him. He held her hand too long.

READ THIS FIRST

MERRY LOCKE, twenty, falls in love with ANTHONY GAINES, a young lawyer.

A few days after they meet each other, he asks her to run away and be married. But Merry, because she cares so much for him, tells him the truth about herself. She tells him how little she has always been, and about her recent "crash" on DERRICK JONES, a college boy, who lives next door to her. o Tony decides to wait for six months.

Merry's father dies and MOMS has to bring up Merry and her three sisters. CASSIE is the only one of them who is earning money. She is secretary to MORLEY KAUFMAN, a broker, with whom she's in love. Kaufman is a great friend of Tony's, and CASSIE tells Merry that Tony has a great deal of money.

HELEN, the eldest of the four sisters, marries BILL WORTH, the son of Dad's former employer, and JINNY, the youngest sister, takes over her job of helping MOMS with the new work.

Merry gets a place in MADAME DALE'S beauty shop Boylston street. When Tony's mother returns from a visit, a telephone to say he won't be over to see Merry.

Cassie tells Merry that if he really meant to marry her, he couldn't have broken the date with her, but would have brought his mother with him to call on her. She adds that if he were serious in his intentions, he would have given her an engagement ring, too. The first doubt of Tony rises in Merry's mind, and hurt and unhappy, she lets Derrick Jones make love to her that night. Later when Tony gives her the ring that had been his mother's engagement ring she breaks down and tells him about Derrick. He makes no comment, but the next day passes without any word from him.

Merry sees no more of him for several days. Sunday afternoon Morley Kaufman wants Cassie and Merry to go out for supper with him and a friend, and Cassie urges Merry to go. (NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY)

CHAPTER XVII.
Faintly, faintly, just as everything was if you didn't go, walled Cassie, and tears actually slipped in her eyes.

"This is the very first time that Morley Kaufman has ever wanted to meet any of my family," she went on shakily, "and it's a shame for you to kick out now at the last minute! What will he think, when he's bringing along this extra man for you?"

"Oh, well," Merry made up her mind suddenly, "I may as well go and sit here at home. I guess. Only"

Nitti Says Dictatorships Must End; Are Only Menace of War

By FRANCESCO NITTI, Former Premier of Italy.

Paris, July 6.—Before the war Europe had twenty-five countries and nearly every one of them had a stable currency. At Present Europe has thirty-five countries and a great number of them a depre- sate currency.

It is incredible that European currencies have a tendency to depreciate. An alarming phenomenon is seen. The greater part of the ruin of Europe is due to the depreciation of the currencies.

"THE AMERICAN WEEKLY" IS THE MOST WIDELY CIRCULATED MAGAZINE IN THE WORLD

Sought first and kept longest by 5,000,000 families

CThe American Weekly is read and digested all through the week, by young and old alike, long after the news sections of the Sunday papers have been discarded

EVERY Sunday morning, from coast to coast, 5,000,000 friendly contests take place in as many American homes, to see who shall get The American Weekly first. It is the first part of the paper turned to, the last to be laid aside.

The American Weekly is a complete magazine, printed in newspaper form, and furnished with the Sunday editions of the Hearst chain of newspapers. It has fiction, news and feature articles, fashions, a household department—a varied and fascinating array of material which makes it the most entertaining magazine in the world. Its appeal is universal.

Every Sunday morning, 5,000,000 families, in every part of the United States, start reading The American Weekly. Mother reads it; Father reads it; the whole family reads it. Far into the week it is kept and treasured, and not until the last feature has been read by the last member of the family is it permitted to go.

In these 5,000,000 American homes there are 14,700,000 persons of reading age, plus 7,200,000 who are not. This means that directly or indirectly The American Weekly influences the lives of 21,900,000 individuals—almost one-fifth of the entire population of the United States!

All these 21,900,000 individuals are consumers. Whether man, woman or child, each requires certain commodities in order to exist. Every day they buy enormous quantities of merchandise of every description. The ordinary purchases of these 5,000,000 families run up into the hundreds of millions of dollars.

No other market in the world can compare with this in size and richness. And for the manufacturer who wishes to exploit it, there is only one logical method of approach. He must advertise, and advertise extensively.

The American Weekly offers the greatest advantages to advertisers in the history of merchandising. Its circulation is double that of any other publication in the world. Its advertising rates, in proportion to circulation, are the lowest. It is the only national medium in which the advertiser can use a full newspaper-size page in color. It is the only big periodical with maximum circulation in the cities, where tremendous buying-power is concentrated, and where merchandising distribution is most easily obtained. It is the quickest, most economical and effective advertising medium in existence!

Kearns Bares 'Inside' Life of Jack Dempsey

The Truth on Jack Dempsey!

Jack Kearns, deposed manager of the world's heavyweight champion, pulls back the curtain and permits the readers of the Boston Evening American to gaze upon the "inside" story of the world's heavyweight champion.

It is the greatest newspaper feature of the year and answers the questions as to whether Dempsey was ever yellow, was he ever nervous before a fight, was he sullen or smiling.

It tells of the political obstacles connected with a championship battle, of Dempsey's purses, the training periods and ringside suspense. Kearns depicts Tex Rickard driving a million dollar bargain and tells of the "methods" of the New York Boxing Commission.

Dempsey's ambition to become a movie sheik is bared, while Kearns also tells the close-up story of the champion's first trip to Europe where he rubbed elbows with kings and queens.

Boston Athlete Loses Chance for Honors in Shot Put

Salmon, N. H. July 8.—One of the best shot putters in the country, Maurice Le Buer, lost his chance for the shot put title today at the National Junior Championships in Philadelphia.

Le Buer, who was the favorite to win the title, was defeated by Maurice Le Buer of the Newark A. C. in the final round of the competition. The result was a disappointment for many fans who had been following Le Buer's progress throughout the tournament.

The shot put competition was one of the most exciting of the meet. Le Buer's throw of 46 feet 8 inches was a record for the event. Despite his loss, Le Buer's performance was highly praised by the judges and spectators alike.

Champion's Fiancee Refuses to Watch Her Hubby Fight

Chicago July 6 (AP).—The bride-to-be of the new lightweight champion never has seen a boxing boss and never wants to see one, says Mandell fight agent.

"I could stand seeing anybody pummeling Stumpy," she says confidently, "but she wouldn't even listen to the lady corners who told Mandell he was winning it, like from Rocky Marciano." Last Saturday she sat out in her room and I heard about the joys of the world."

Mandell's ex-girlfriend would identify Elizabeth Bentley, mother of James M. Mandell, as a woman who is now in the city.

SUZANNE LEAVES FOR PARIS TO STAY

London, July 6 (A.P.).—Suzanne London, who was forced out of the West End last season because of her "unlucky" looks, is still ill.

What a "drag" will do

A DRAG on your jimmy-pipe, loaded to the guards with Prince Albert, will give you an entirely new idea of how good a pipe can taste when you put it on the proper diet. It will revise all your notions about the grand old pastime of pipe-smoking. Make the test!

This very day, get yourself a tidy red tin of P. A. and tuck a load into the business end of your pipe. Light up and pull that wonderful smoke up the stem. Notice how cool it tastes, whether you feed it fast or slow. Notice how sweet and mellow it is. Good old P. A.

When you open the tin, the aroma that greets you is richly fragrant . . . the breath of real, honest-to-goodness tobacco. An aromatic promise of the smoke-pleasure to come. You'll never forget that taste when you light up. Nothing else is like it anywhere.

No matter how satisfied you think you are, give P. A. a whirl in your jimmy-pipe. Millions of smoke-happy men will tell you that P. A. will give you more pleasure to the cubic inch than any tobacco you ever smoked. There's a P. A. sunshine-shon just across the wall.

When a Friendship Deepens Into Love -:- By Beatrice Fairfax

CHAPTER XXXV.

4 A M. Mr. Dietzel was murdered between 11 o'clock and midnight last night, Gordon has stated.

7 A. N. We have gone over, inch by inch, the scene. We have been spared no stone. The evidence of the struggle is on the walls, the floor, the furniture. We have the very knife which was used to kill him. We have even gone to the grave. We have followed it to its final resting place, along the drainage from there by the car to the salt marsh behind Rye Beach, Port

Intense Excitement

August 21st

The excitement still intense, I have hardly been half an hour in trouble; he is working it out in the place of which a number have been to assist at Greenough. Curious crowds stand outside our gates, many have been obliged to close and look at a few of the murmur, and the machine almost on the lane, are turned back to be outside who are still and still.

the man, however, was a little different. He was a white man, about 35 years of age, with a mustache, and a friendly smile. He was wearing a light blue shirt and dark trousers. He was sitting in a chair, and looking at the camera. He was speaking in a calm, steady voice. He was telling me about his life, and how he had come to be in the United States. He was a very interesting man, and I was glad to hear his story. He was a very kind man, and I was glad to meet him. He was a very interesting man, and I was glad to hear his story. He was a very kind man, and I was glad to meet him.

He appeared on rollers and there was a view as he turned up, to end in disappointment. Greenough believes that he will be found, that he cannot be the choice director, but I am not so sure.

After about eight days eight hours pasted Jane has not yet opened her eyes. I am not sure of this because if her marital reasons on such matters, I have not told the police.

Afterwards I had happened to see the body, waiting outside and sent away.

But I called Halliday, and he listened. He knew then that instead of being a director, he was a director of work. He worked fast, in that ghastly shambles of a room; the scene was probably already out, in the room, and he was not a director at the corner of the lane, the machine turning over quietly, and was Halliday running up toward the house, and he had a secret laugh of his which had

HAMMILL'S CHOICE PLEASING BOSTON

By FRANK H. MELOAN,
Financial Editor

We find President Coolidge's nomination of Charles S. Hammill as director of the Federal Reserve Board well received by bankers in this city. Representative Melvyn D. Phillips, chairman of the House committee on banking and currency, was a radio star for the position held by Mr. Hammill.

Mr. Hammill was formerly associate director of the Treasury and rejected the post-war bond drive. He is a native of Massachusetts. Mr. Hammill, a building lawyer, began his career in the Young Men's Club, May of the members of the club after being prominent on the day staff.

Joseph Quinn rose to the Boston Mayor's chair. Quinn, a native of Quincy, William A. Quinn, a native of Quincy, was elected Mayor of Quincy, Massachusetts, on July 5, 1926. He is a native of Quincy, Massachusetts, and was elected Mayor of Quincy, Massachusetts, on July 5, 1926.

Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, the greatest tariff authority in the United States, who died in Washington, D. C., on July 5, 1926. He was a native of New York and was a member of the Senate from 1883 to 1909.

Consolidator Frank Goodwin has been named to head the financial reorganization in the case of the Fall River mill. He is a native of Fall River, Massachusetts, and has been in the financial business for many years.

Here's another little rack in accountancy. The little Boston and New York stock market has been a "triple bubble," consisting of a bubble in the stock market, a bubble in the bond market, and a bubble in the commodity market.

Harvard Economic Service, discussing the market in the June 26 bulletin, says in part: "As the result of recent market fluctuations, the industrial averages have recovered their late May position. The present outlook for stock prices is one of uncertainty, but the outlook for the industrial averages is one of confidence."

R. K. Carle, secretary of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, will give the first lecture in the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. The lecture will be held at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, on July 13, 1926.

FINANCE

By C. C. FORBES

The second half of the year has started promisingly. Let's take a brief survey. The downward tendency in the general price level appears to have been arrested, notwithstanding that there has been a widespread feeling of anything suggestive of speculative buying for future delivery.
